

All Saints' Episcopal Day School, a 2K-6th grade, independent school in Florence, S.C. is seeking Elementary (3rd-6th) teachers to join the faculty for the 2023-24 academic year.

Strong candidates will be professional, self-driven, team-oriented and lifelong learners who pursue excellence and contribute positively to the life of All Saints' Day School in various ways. They will be growth-oriented, passionate about teaching, called to working with young children and technologically savvy. They will embrace fully the school's mission and will be able to bring subjects to life, to collaborate effectively across grade levels and departments and to inspire students to learn. Strong candidates also will cultivate critical thinking and learning skills through student-centered, differentiated instruction and the use of thoughtfully designed, well-crafted assessments that help prepare students to function in our increasingly dynamic, interconnected, technological world.

The successful candidate will have:

- A minimum of a bachelor's degree in early childhood or elementary education and current teacher certification
- A master's degree and three years or more of teaching experience is preferred
- Excellent written and oral communication skills
- A sense of humor, compassion and a desire to work collaboratively

Duties and Responsibilities:

- Understands the academic, social and emotional needs of learners, and creates a learning environment that allows them the opportunity to activate their creativity and ingenuity
- Builds community by cultivating relationships and making connections with students
- Provides a supportive learning environment by encouraging student participation and using positive behavioral support strategies to maintain standards of student behavior for an effective learning atmosphere
- Establishes clear learning goals and links subject matter to prior learning and experiences
- Uses assessments to guide learning and adjust lessons, and differentiates based on readiness, interest and learning profiles
- Creates lessons that focus on active learning and important ideas, and emphasizes thought and meaning utilizing multiple modes of expression
- Other duties as assigned

Please reply immediately to be considered for this position.

To apply, send resume to: Ashley Stokes, Associate Head of School, astokes@aseds.com